

TRACTION BED Model - 1020

- 4 Fold Traction Table offered comes in precision designed & constructed finish and provides suitable support for cervical and lumbar traction therapy involving application of mechanical force on cervical/lumbar traction.
- The smooth working action of the system allows providing desired relief from issues like muscle spasms as well as also provide for pain relief by improving blood circulation and assisting in repair of soft tissue damage.
- Some of its features include helps in subsiding of inflammation
- Helps in releasing soft tissue adhesion
- Aids in correcting spinal joints post micro abnormal changes to spine; support resetting micro-dislocation and restoring normal physiological curvature of spine